General Principles

Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre is committed to providing fair and understandable privacy policies in relation to personal data.

Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre will, at all times, keep data in secure locations (including, but not limited to, encrypted and access restricted files) and not retain data unnecessarily or past the retention length as set out in this policy.

In the rare instance a data processor that is not an Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre employee is used, such as a third party, the data subject will either be asked for consent pre to supplying the data or be notified and have the right to object to processing.

Participants and Customers

How Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre collect personal data:

Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre customers and participants supply their personal data when signing up for classes through our registration form either via the website, or via paper form. This is either completed by a parent/guardian or the child themselves if they deemed able to do so.

Personal data may also come to us unsolicited via enquiries through our website and to our generic email account.

Why Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre collect personal data:

To attend any of Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre's activities participants/parents/guardians must agree to some processing of their personal data. This is due to Legitimate Interests – GDPR Article 6(1)(f), Legal Obligation GDPR Article 6(1)(c), Contract - Article 6(1)(b) and/or Consent - Article 6(1)(a).

Should Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre be unable to process participant's data, we would be contravening both our Health & Safety and Child Safeguarding policies. We would also be ignoring best practice regarding working with children/vulnerable adults.

Our participants must remain safe at all times, therefore information about participants must be collected in order to create registers and accurate student records. This information is also used to provide students with appropriate classes, including dividing students into age groups.

Special category data is only collected with the consent of the data subject. Special category data Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre collects includes but is not limited to: Medical/Disability information, Income information, Ethnicity, Gender and Sexuality.

As physical activity providers it is essential that this consent is given should a participant have any medical/disability needs. This allows us to incorporate participants safely into classes. It is also used in assessing if we can incorporate participants safely into classes.

Income information is only collected in instances where a participant applies to attend our classes at a concessionary price, or on a bursary. This financial support is means tested, and therefore is subject to documented proof. Proofs of entitlement to concession are shredded after the entitlement has been noted.

Ethnicity and other sensitive data is to provide information to funding bodies for statistical purposes.

This data is always provided to third parties as quantified data (i.e. cumulative numerical data only with no identifying information relating to any data subject).

What data we collect:

Personal data and some special category is collected.

It is essential to our primary function (providing classes to participants) that we are provided, and allowed to process and store the following:

Participant Personal Data:

- Full Name - GDPR Article 6(1)(f)

Why Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre collect personal data:

It is Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre's legal obligation to collect staff's personal data in relation to their employment. This is due to Legal Obligation GDPR Article 6(1)(c) and/or Contract - Article 6(1)(b)

Should Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre be unable to process staff's data, we would be contravening UK Employment law, our own employment contracts (both PAYE and Freelance) and our own Health & Safety and Child Safeguarding policies.

Special category data is only collected with the consent of the data subject. Special category data Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre collects includes but is not limited to: Medical/Disability information, Ethnicity, Gender and Sexuality. Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre's lawful purpose for collecting this data is both Article 6(1)(b) – contract and Article 9(2)(b) – employment. This also ensures we are conforming to our Equal Opportunities policy. Any data is always recorded as quantified data (i.e. cumulative numerical data only with no identifying information relating to any data subject).

Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre is also entitled to obtain and process data in relation to criminal convictions and DBS checks. Most posts within Sparkle Dance Studios & Fitness Centre are exempt from the Rehabilitation of offenders act (1974) by the 1975 and 2001 Exceptions Amendment, as they involve working with vulnerable and/or young people. This is further supported by article 10 of GDPR.
